Acknowledging

Autism Speaks

Autism Speaks is dedicated to funding global biomedical research into the causes, prevention, treatments, and cure for autism; to raising public awareness about autism and its effects on individuals, families, and society; and to bringing hope to all who deal with the hardships of this disorder. We are committed to raising the funds necessary to support these goals.

Fred S. Keller School

The Fred S. Keller School is located in Yonkers, New York, and is one of several schools operating as a Comprehensive Application of Behavior Analysis to Schooling program. The Keller School currently serves children between the ages of 18 months and 5 years. Most students have mild to severe educational disabilities, including autism or pervasive developmental disorder.
